

PROCLAMATION

Project Blue Light

WHEREAS: Project Blue Light began in Philadelphia in 1988 as a Memorial to a fallen police officer. This tradition has spread nationwide and has become a source of encouragement to the dedicated men and women who patrol our streets and highways every day.

WHEREAS: Project Blue Light warms the holidays. The Law Enforcement Officers and their support agencies are dedicated in their fight against crime and protecting every citizen's rights;

WHEREAS: The County of Warren desires to remember the dedication of its own law enforcement officers and support agencies;

WHEREAS: The displaying of a blue light during the holiday season is symbolic and honors those officers who continue to work the violent streets and highways.

NOW THEREFORE, We the Commissioners of Warren County do hereby encourage the citizens of Warren County to participate in "Project Blue Light" for the coming holiday season. A display of the blue lights in December will let our officers know that the County supports them as they expose themselves to danger keeping our county safe and well protected.

ADOPTED this 14th day of December, 2011.
